

Dear Amex

Thank you for your letter. I am pleased that the dress fits you. I cannot tell how big you are.

So now you go to a different school. you will be glad it is not quite as far off & that Grannie Dickey is near.

I hope your dog is learning to be obedient & that she will be as good as Toby was.

Baby Elizabeth can now wave her hand & also she tries to clap them like Barbara used to do when I was with
you. Geoffrey runs here every morning & brings me any letters that come for me & ~~also~~ the papers & he gets one or more sweets according to how many he brings. He lives very dear now - about 1/2 way down to your stables or less. Yesterday he was here to tea, he rides his tricycle a great deal & manages it very well. He fell off quite a number of times at first but now stands it tells little friend of his ate a number of headache pills thinking they were sweets, & he was very ill indeed & had to go to Ho-pital in the middle of the night & stay there a week. they managed to cure him but he dearly died. With love & kisses to you, Barbara & Tom from Grammie Newson.
