

Monday

Your letter with the graveyard folder arrived this
- morning & a F.P. for which I thank you.

I now go out between 5.30 & 7.30. with a Mr Lee a very small man, he has been here 12 years, he is rather like Mike Sherney in his ways of thinking about life, but he is alright when talking about other subjects, I think he will have a job to convert me that the honest way ^{in business} is not the right way, but no doubt the dishonest do gain by War for a time but perhaps not in the end if there is a Heaven & Hell. & I

do not think it right to wait for years to settle a truth when honest people can settle it themselves.

He seems to think it is right to live on the public's money & do very little work, but I suppose that is because he has not any himself & trusts in faith.
